

Summer Fire Field Day

10:00am Tuesday, July 10, 2018 at the Riggs Arboretum, north side of Waterloo, Kansas

Agenda: 10:00-10:30am Registration

10:30am-12:00pm Team discusses burning in the growing season-the how and why

12:00-1:00pm Lunch provided (no cost)

1:00-2:00pm Conduct burn (weather permitting)

Please RSVP to Kingman County Conservation District (620-532-5731)

By Friday, July 6, 2018

This is an outdoor activity and may be very smoky.

LUNCH WILL BE PROVIDED!!!- Courtesy of the American Ag Credit of Kingman (Please inform us of any special accommodations that you require)

Sponsored By:

Wichita State University Biological Field Station
Kansas Prescribed Fire Council
Kansas Forest Service
Kingman County Conservation District

USFWS, Partners Program
USDA, Natural Resources and Conservation Service
K-State Research and Extension
Great Plains Fire Science Exchange

All publicly funded Agencies and Organizations are equal opportunity providers and employers.